

Job application letter in English

Mr. Director

After Greetings:

I very much hope that I will obtain this vacant position in the company, as I possess many skills that I acquired from my previous studies and work in a company.....and during my time there I gained more experiences that will make me excel in your distinguished company. I help facilitate workflow and achieve additional success for the company.

greetings to you all

signature/